COMMITTEE MEETING.-The democaucity and county committees met the purpose of allowing candidates for the Legislature to register their names the Legislature to register their names ments for the campaign. There were present Chairman Carter and Messrs. E Price, Frank Penn and R. T. of the city committee, and and Fred Russell, of the county commitle.

Mr. Louis C. Barley appeared and, amounting himself a candidate, gave his check for the necessary expenses of holding a primary.

Mr. Graham declined to accept the check for expenses in the county, saying that he and other members of his committee thought that as there was come a distance of from two to eight miles to vote and it would be an un-here ary inconvenience. thought that the best thing the party could do would be to hold a primary. He said that Mr. Barley had favored a primary at a previous meeting and f the matter was left to the city and county committees and they were to aunounce Mr. Barley as the nominee without a primary, many voters would think the action illegal the support of that nomines. There were conditions in the county, he said, which, in his opinion, rendered it necessarv to hold a primary.

Mr. Graham held that it was perfect lg legal for the committee to announce Mr. Barley the nominee without holding a primary and cited several ingances where the same action had been

Auction Bargain Sale.

You get this week the benefit of our great purchase of Dry Goods and Notions at the auction sale of Messis. Wm. F. Biedler & Co. of Baltimore. These goods were sold by Grotjau, Lobe & Co., auctioneers. D. Bendheim & Sons were among the largest purchasers there. Not a dollar's worth of this stock had they expected to buy when our representative entered the large warehouse of the above firm, No. 12 west Howard street, where the sale was in progress; but you had just as well try to change the course of the great Potomac river as to try to prevent D. Bendheim & Sons from buying goods when they are being slaughtered at prices from 40 to 50c on the dollar. The bargains advertised below will convince you of what D.
